Definitions

- A. Full-time Employees
"Full-time" is defined as working a regularly scheduled 30- to 40-hour week. An employee who is regularly scheduled for less than 30 hours is not considered to be full-time until they have worked 8 consecutive weeks at 30 hours.
- B. Working Day
"Working day" or "day" as used in this manual is the average working day on a pro-rated basis.

Parchment Community Library Personnel Policy

C. Pro-rated Day

Part-time employees receive sick and vacation days for which they are eligible on a pro-rated basis. A “pro-rated day” in hours is determined for each part-time employee by dividing their normally scheduled weekly hours by 40 and multiplying the result times 8 hours. The result will be rounded to the nearest half-hour. For example, an employee scheduled to work 20 hours per week has a pro-rated day of 4 hours.

D. Work week

A “work week” is defined as the number of hours an employee works in a week. A part-time employee who alternates working 6 hours one week and 12 hours the next will have an average work week of 9 hours.

On occasion, staff will be invited to attend an in-service event. The library is closed for the day. The event may include a visit to another library or an in-service program and lunch*.

Staff who attend Staff Appreciation Day will be paid their standard hourly wage for the amount of hours they are engaged in the event.

Staff who do not attend a staff in-service event may take the day as unpaid, or must take paid vacation or sick leave. If insufficient paid leave is available to cover the hours for Staff Appreciation Day, the hours not covered will be unpaid.

Staff who drive their own vehicles to event sites (other than the library) may apply for mileage reimbursement at the current IRS rate, using the Request for Reimbursement form.

- b. The employee's position can be kept open or temporarily filled without material adverse impact upon Library operations.

Medical leaves may be extended upon approval of the Library Board for thirty (30) additional days upon receipt of an additional written recommendation of the employee's physician if the Library Board is satisfied that additional medical leave is in the best interest of the Library.

Employees on medical leave must provide the Library with a statement from their physician stating that the employee is physically able to return to work and perform the employee's job.

The Library cannot guarantee that an employee will be reinstated to the employee's former position if a medical leave exceeds six (6) months. In the event that an employee suffers from a disability, the Library will comply with the requirements of law.

8.02 THE FAMILY MEDICAL LEAVE ACT (FMLA)

For the purpose of this section, immediate family shall include spouse, children, or employee's parents.

Unpaid leave to care for an ill spouse, parent or child may instead be taken under the Family Medical Leave Act by eligible employees. (See 8.02 for more information)

8.04 LEAVE OF ABSENCE

If it is necessary for an employee to be absent for more than one day, the Library Board may grant a leave of absence without pay not to exceed two weeks duration. In order for the Board to act on the request, it must be submitted in writing to the Board at the closest meeting prior to the leave of absence. In case of an absence of one day or less, the Director may grant the unpaid leave of absence. In case of emergency, the Executive Board shall have the power to grant such leave. Leaves of absence may be extended by the Library Board for reasons acceptable to the Board. Extensions shall be decided on an individual basis.

11. DISCIPLINE

11.01 GENERAL GUIDELINES

Nothing in this manual shall require the Library to impose discipline in any particular order. The listing of classifications of disciplinary action in this manual is intended to advise employees of the ramifications of the various sorts of disciplinary action. This manual does not in any way restrict the Library's right to terminate employment at will whether under this Policy or outside it. The Library's decision of whether the employee has committed a violation of the standards of conduct or work rules established under this manual or has engaged in other conduct unacceptable to the Library, and the Library's decision upon the discipline imposed, is final and not subject to review or appeal outside the Library except as otherwise required by law.

Employees are subject to discipline for violation of any standard of conduct or work rule of the Library. In addition, employees are subject to discipline for failure to comply with any provision of this manual, or for any other reason deemed appropriate by the Library Director and/or Library Board. A record of such discipline imposed by the Library Director shall be maintained as part of the employee's personnel record.

Generally, discipline less than suspension or discharge will be imposed for minor offenses. Minor offenses are defined as those violations of the standards of employee conduct and/or work rules, or violations of provisions of this manual, which are unacceptable if repeated, but which do not warrant suspension or discharge for the first offense.

Where serious offenses occur, suspension or immediate termination may be imposed. Serious offenses are defined as those willful, deliberate, or repeated violations of standards of employee conduct and/or work rules, or violations of provisions of this manual, of such a nature that it is determined that continued employment of the employee is not in keeping with the best interests of the Library.

In addition to discipline for violation of standards for employee conduct and/or work rules, or violation of provisions of this manual, employees may be terminated at any time for unacceptable job performance, unsatisfactory work practices, inability to work effectively with the Library Director or co-workers, or any other reason deemed valid by the Library Director and/or the Library Board.

Parchment Community Library Personnel Policy

11.02 FORMS OF DISCIPLINE

Discipline may take any of the following forms:

1. Employee Counseling or Oral Reprimand: Employee is counseled by the Library Director or the employee's immediate supervisor concerning proper conduct.
2. Written Reprimand: Employee receives a written notice from the Library Director specifying minor offense or nature of unsatisfactory performance.
3. Final Written Warning: In certain situations, the employee may be given a written notice specifying that if there is further misconduct and/or the employee does not remedy deficiencies in job performance, the employee is subject to discharge. The final written warning will be given in situations where it is determined that notwithstanding the employee's misconduct and/or unsatisfactory job performance, it is in the interest of the Library to provide to the employee one last chance to remedy the deficiencies.
4. Suspension: Employee receives a written notice of suspension following serious misconduct, repeated minor offenses, or continued unsatisfactory job performance. The period of time off without pay is specified in the notice of suspension.
5. Discharge: Employee is discharged for a serious offense or for an accumulation of minor offenses, or for failure to satisfactorily respond to a final written warning, or for failure to satisfactorily perform duties, or any other lawful reason deemed appropriate by the Library Director and/or Library Board.

11.03 PROBLEM SOLVING PROCEDURE

This procedure applies to every situation in which an employee wishes to contest any form of discipline imposed against the employee, and also applies to every other problem or controversy which an employee may have in connection with employment by the Library. However, employees serving their initial probationary period, whether or not it has been extended, may not appeal or contest a suspension or discharge action.

Failure of an employee to follow the problem-solving procedure set forth herein in the time and manner provided shall constitute a waiver of any challenge to the discipline imposed.

When an employee is suspended or discharged, the employee may submit a written request for a hearing directly to STEP 3 of the problem solving procedure within the time provided therein.

Parchment Community Library Personnel Policy

STEP 1: Verbal Procedure.

An employee with a complaint and/or problem shall, within five (5) working days of the occasion giving rise to the problem, discuss the matter with the Library Director. The Library Director is not required to make any written record of such discussions, but may do so if the Library Director determines, in their discretion, that a written record is appropriate.

STEP 2: Written Procedure.

If the employee feels that the problem has not been resolved, the employee shall reduce the problem to writing with all the facts and reasons why the Library Director's response was not satisfactory, and present the writing to the Library Director within three (3) working days of the verbal discussion. The Library Director shall have five (5) working days in which to give a written response.

STEP 3: Hearing.

If the problem is still unresolved, the employee may request in writing a hearing before the Library Board, by filing a request for a hearing with the Secretary of the Library Board within five (5) working days of the decision in STEP 2 or within five (5) working days of the date of written notice of suspension or discharge. Upon receipt of such a request, the Library Board shall schedule a hearing to be held within thirty (30) days after the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Library Board. The Library Board shall cause written notice of such hearing to be given by first class mail at least ten (10) days prior to the date scheduled for hearing to the employee and such attorney or agent that the employee has identified in the request for hearing. The notice shall be in writing and shall contain the date, time, and place at which the hearing will be conducted. The employee, the Library Director, and such witnesses which each of them shall call, shall be given a full and complete opportunity to be heard at said hearing, subject, however, to such reasonable rules and regulations which the Board may impose. A decision of the Library Board shall be made within thirty (30) days after such hearing and the Board shall cause its decision to be put in writing and be served by first class mail upon the employee and the employee's attorney or agent, if any. The decision of the Library Board shall be final and binding upon all parties. All hearings conducted by the Library Board under this step shall be in conformance with the Open Meetings Act of the State of Michigan.

Parchment Community Library Personnel Policy

12. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

12.01 UNUSED VACATION

An employee who resigns or retires will be paid on a pro-rated basis for any unused vacation, up to a maximum of four (4) weeks, providing the employee has completed one (1) year of continuous service.

The unused vacation will be pro-rated according to the calendar year, as follows: Total unused vacation divided by 52 weeks; this result is multiplied by the number of weeks the employee has worked in the current calendar year.

For example, consider an employee who worked 40 hours a week, had used 40 hours of a total of 160 hours of vacation, and who resigned on April 1 (16 weeks of the calendar year). $160 - 40 = 120$ hours of unused vacation. $120 / 52 = 2.31$, the number of unused vacation hours per week. $2.31 * 16 \text{ weeks} = 36.96$, which is the number of unused vacation hours the employee will be paid in their final paycheck.

12.02 UNUSED SICK LEAVE

Upon terminating employment by discharge all unused sick leave shall be forfeited.

Upon termination of employment by resignation or retirement after ten or more years of service, fifty percent (50%) of accumulated sick leave shall be paid.

12.03 RESIGNATION

An employee shall give a minimum of two (2) working weeks' notice of resignation. The notice shall be in writing and shall be submitted to the Library Director, giving expected date and reason for resignation. The Library Director shall submit notice of their resignation to the President of the Board of Trustees. Under ordinary circumstances, four weeks' notice is requested for department heads and two weeks' notice for all other positions. Unused vacation and personal time may not be used towards this notice.

Failure to comply with this provision may limit the employee's receipt of any accrued benefits,

Parchment Community Library Personnel Policy

pursuant to Library policy for fringe benefits.

12.04 ABANDONMENT

Any employee absent from duty without proper notification and authorization thereof for three consecutive days shall be considered to have resigned the position.

12.05 RETIREMENT

There is no mandatory retirement age.

13. POLICY REVIEW AND AMENDMENTS

The Parchment Community Library Board of Trustees will review this personnel policy annually. This policy may be amended by a majority vote of the members of the Board of Trustees at any meeting.

Parchment Community Library Personnel Policy

APPENDIX 1: SEXUAL ABUSE AND CHILD MOLESTATION POLICY

The Parchment Community Library does not permit or allow sexual abuse or molestation to occur in the workplace or at any activity sponsored by or related to it. In order to make this “zero-tolerance” policy clear to all employees and volunteers, we have adopted mandatory procedures that employees, volunteers, family members, board members, individuals and victims must follow when they learn of or witness sexual abuse or molestation.

Sexual abuse takes the form of inappropriate sexual contact or interaction for the gratification of the actor. It does not include sexual harassment, which is another form of behavior prohibited by the Parchment Community Library.

Reporting Procedure

If the staff believe that an assault has just occurred, they should call the police. All staff members who learn of sexual abuse being committed must immediately report it to the Library Director. If the victim is an adult, the abuse will be reported by this designee to the local or state Adult Protective Services (APS) Agency. If a child is the victim, the designee will report it to the local or state child Abuse Agency. Appropriate family members of the victim must be notified immediately of the suspected child abuse.

Investigation and Follow Up

We take allegations of sexual abuse seriously. Once the allegation is reported we will promptly, thoroughly and impartially initiate an investigation to determine whether there is a reasonable basis to believe that sexual abuse has been committed. Our investigation may be undertaken by either an internal team or we may hire an independent third party. We will cooperate fully with any investigation conducted by law enforcement or regulatory agencies and we may refer the complaint and the result of our investigation to those agencies. We reserve the right to place the subject of the investigation on an involuntary leave of absence or reassign that person to responsibilities that do not involve personal contact with individuals. To the fullest extent possible, but consistent with our legal obligation to report suspected abuse to appropriate authorities, we will endeavor to keep confidential the identities of the alleged victims and of the subject under investigation.

If the investigation substantiates the allegation, our policy provides for disciplinary penalties, including but not limited to termination of the actor’s relationship with our organization.

Parchment Community Library Personnel Policy

There are a number of “red flags” that suggest someone is being sexually abused. They take the form of physical or behavioral evidence.

Physical evidence of sexual abuse includes, but is not limited to:

- Sexually transmitted diseases;
- Difficulty walking normally;
- Stained, bloody or torn undergarments;
- Genital pain or itching; and
- Physical injuries involving the external genitalia.

Behavioral signals suggestive of sexual abuse include, but are not limited to:

- Fear or reluctance about being left in the care of a particular person;
- Recoiling from being touched;
- Bundling oneself in excessive clothing, especially night clothes;
- Discomfort or apprehension when sex is referred to or discussed; and
- Nightmares or fear of night and/or darkness.

Retaliation Prohibited

We prohibit any form of retaliation against anyone, including an employee, volunteer, board member, or individual, who in good faith reports sexual abuse, alleges that it is being committed or participates in the investigation. Intentionally false or malicious accusations of sexual abuse are prohibited.

Anyone who retaliates improperly against someone who has made a good faith allegation of sexual abuse, or intentionally provides false information to that effect, will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination.

APPENDIX 2: SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

This policy provides guidance for employee use of social media, which should be broadly understood for purposes of this policy to include blogs, wikis, microblogs, message boards, chat rooms, electronic newsletters, online forums, social networking sites, and other sites and services that permit users to share information with others in a contemporaneous manner.

PROCEDURES

The following principles apply to professional use of social media on behalf of the Parchment Community Library as well as personal use of social media when referencing the Parchment Community Library.

1. Employees need to know and adhere to the Parchment Community Library's Personnel Policy when using social media in reference to the Parchment Community Library.
2. Employees should be aware of the effect their actions may have on their images, as well as the Parchment Community Library's image. The information that employees post or publish may be public information for a long time.
3. Employees should be aware that the Parchment Community Library may observe content and information made available by employees through social media. Employees should use their best judgment in posting material that is neither inappropriate nor harmful to the Parchment Community Library, its employees, or customers.
4. Although not an exclusive list, some specific examples of prohibited social media conduct include posting commentary, content, or images that are defamatory, pornographic, proprietary, harassing, libelous, or that can create a hostile work environment.
5. Employees are not to publish, post or release any information that is considered confidential or not public. If there are questions about what is considered confidential, employees should check with the Library Director.
6. Social media networks, blogs and other types of online content sometimes generate press and media attention or legal questions. Employees should refer these inquiries to the Library Director.
7. If employees encounter a situation while using social media that threatens to become antagonistic, employees should disengage from the dialogue in a polite manner and seek the advice of the Library Director.
8. Employees should get appropriate permission before referring to or posting images of current or former employees, patrons, vendors or suppliers. Additionally, employees should get appropriate permission to use a third party's copyrights, copyrighted material, trademarks, service marks or other intellectual property.

9. Social media shouldn't interfere with employee's responsibilities at the Parchment Community Library. The Parchment Community Library's computer systems are to be used for business purposes only. When using Parchment Community Library's computer systems, use of social media for business purposes is allowed (ex: Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn), but personal use of social media networks or personal blogging of online content is discouraged and could result in disciplinary action.
10. Subject to applicable law, after-hours online activity that violates the Parchment Community Library's Personnel Policy or any other company policy may subject an employee to disciplinary action or termination.
11. If employees publish content after-hours that involves work or subjects associated with the Parchment Community Library, a disclaimer should be used, such as this: "The postings on this site are my own and may not represent the Parchment Community Library's positions, strategies or opinions."
12. It is highly recommended that employees keep the Parchment Community Library-related social media accounts separate from personal accounts, if practical.

The Parchment Community Library defines bullying as repeated, health-harming mistreatment of one or more people by one or more perpetrators. It is abusive conduct that includes:

- Threatening, humiliating or intimidating behaviors.
- Work interference/sabotage that prevents work from getting done.

Such behavior violates the Parchment Community Library's Personnel Policy, which clearly states that all employees will be treated with dignity and respect.

2. Shouting or raising one's voice at an individual in public or in private.
3. Using obscene or intimidating gestures.
4. Not allowing the person to speak or express themselves (i.e. ignoring or interrupting).
5. Personal insults and use of offensive nicknames.
6. Public humiliation in any form.

Parchment Community Library Personnel Policy

7. Constant criticism on matters unrelated or minimally related to the person's job performance or description.
8. Public reprimands.
9. Repeatedly accusing someone of errors that cannot be documented.
10. Deliberately interfering with mail and other communications.
11. Spreading rumors and gossip regarding individuals.
12. Encouraging others to disregard a supervisor's instructions.
13. Manipulating the ability of someone to do their work (e.g. overloading, underloading, withholding information, setting deadlines that cannot be met, giving deliberately ambiguous instructions).
14. Assigning menial tasks not in keeping with the normal responsibilities of the job.
15. Taking credit for another person's ideas.
16. Refusing reasonable requests for leave in the absence of work-related reasons not to grant leave.
17. Deliberately excluding an individual or isolating them from work-related activities, such as meetings.
18. Unwanted physical contact, physical abuse or threats of abuse to an individual or an individual's property (defacing or marking up property).

Individuals who feel they have experienced bullying should report this to the Library Director before the conduct becomes severe or pervasive. All employees are strongly encouraged to report any bullying conduct they experience or witness as soon as possible to the Director to take appropriate action. Employees reporting bullying should follow the Problem Solving

Procedure as outlined in the Personnel Policy:

STEP 1: Verbal Procedure.

An employee with a complaint and/or problem shall, within five (5) working days of the occasion giving rise to the problem, discuss the matter with the Library Director. The Library Director is not required to make any written record of such discussions, but may do so if the Library Director determines, at their discretion, that a written record is appropriate.

STEP 2: Written Procedure.

If the employee feels that the problem has not been resolved, the employee shall reduce the problem to writing with all the facts and reasons why the Library Director's response was not satisfactory, and present the writing to the Library Director within three (3) working days of the verbal discussion. The Library Director shall have five (5) working days in which to give a written response.

Parchment Community Library Personnel Policy

STEP 3: Hearing.

If the problem is still unresolved, the employee may request in writing a hearing before the Library Board, by filing a request for a hearing with the Secretary of the Library Board within five (5) working days of the decision in STEP 2 or within five (5) working days of the date of written notice of suspension or discharge. Upon receipt of such a request, the Library Board shall schedule a hearing to be held within thirty (30) days after the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Library Board. The Library Board shall cause written notice of such hearing to be given by first class mail at least ten (10) days prior to the date scheduled for hearing to the employee and such attorney or agent that the employee has identified in the request for hearing. The notice shall be in writing and shall contain the date, time, and place at which the hearing will be conducted. The employee, the Library Director, and such witnesses which each of them shall call, shall be given a full and complete opportunity to be heard at said hearing, subject, however, to such reasonable rules and regulations which the Board may impose. A decision of the Library Board shall be made within thirty (30) days after such hearing and the Board shall cause its decision to be put in writing and be served by first class mail upon the employee and the employee's attorney or agent, if any. The decision of the Library Board shall be final and binding upon all parties. All hearings conducted by the Library Board under this step shall be in conformance with the Open Meetings Act of the State of Michigan.
